

The Town of River Bend is currently accepting applications from residents who would like to serve as its representative to the Eastern Carolina Council (ECC). The ECC is one of sixteen Council of Governments across the State. It is composed of local and county governments from nine counties in our area. This is a volunteer position and will be appointed by the Town Council. The representative will be expected to attend all general membership board meetings of the ECC and any other board to which you may be appointed by the ECC. The representative will be expected to periodically report to the Town Council about ECC activities. The Council may instruct the representative how to vote in regards to ECC matters.

Before submitting your application, please visit the ECC web site at <http://www.eccog.org> to familiarize yourself with their operations and meeting schedule. You can apply for the position by submitting an Advisory Board Application to the Town Clerk. The application may be picked up at Town Hall or you can print one from our web site. The deadline for submitting the application is 4 p.m. on January 11, 2018. In order to serve, you must be at least 18 years old and a resident of River Bend.
